

EACH ISSUE of The Annals of Iowa brings to light the deeds, misdeeds, and accomplishments of our predecessors and shows how they fit into the intricate mosaic of Iowa's past. Its in-depth articles will satisfy even the most serious explorer of Iowa's past.

Anyone with a serious interest in Iowa history will gain valuable perspective from the pages of the Annals. Give it as a gift to a friend or relative. Check to see if your public, school, or academic library subscribes; if they don't, encourage them to do so or, better yet, donate a subscription.

KATHRYN SCHUMAKER is a lecturer in the Institute for the American Constitutional Heritage at the University of Oklahoma, where she teaches American constitutional and civil rights history. She received her Ph.D. in history from the University of Chicago in 2013. Her research interests include legal, urban, and African American history.

LESLIE J. STEGH earned degrees from Kent State University and Ohio State University. Along with some teaching in Columbus and at Kent State and Augustana College, he spent most of his working life in the archives at Kent State and Deere & Company. He has contributed articles to the Biographical Dictionary of the Union, Ohio History, Illinois Historical Journal, and Antique Automobile. A John Deere pensioner, he retired as manager, Global Corporate Records Management.

The State Historical Society of Iowa

The Annals of Iowa is published quarterly by the State Historical Society of Iowa, the Historical Division of the Department of Cultural Affairs of the State of Iowa. The society operates from two centers, Des Moines and Iowa City. A museum, research library, state archives, special collections, community programming, historic preservation, and membership programs are located at 600 East Locust Street, Des Moines, IA 50319, phone 515-281-5111. Publications, a research library, and special collections are located at 402 Iowa Avenue, Iowa City, IA 52240, phone 319-335-3916. The society also operates several historic sites across the state.

Subscriptions

Subscriptions to The Annals of Iowa are $24.95 per year; single copies are $7. Contact Publications, State Historical Society of Iowa, 402 Iowa Avenue, Iowa City, Iowa 52240.

The Annals is available on microfilm from Xerox University Microfilms, 300 N. Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48106.

Submissions

The Annals of Iowa invites the submission of articles on Iowa history and on subjects concerning the nation and the Midwest with an Iowa focus. State, local, and regional studies of political, economic, social, cultural, intellectual, institutional, ethnic, religious, material culture, archeological, and architectural history are welcome. The Annals also reviews significant books on related topics. A detailed set of editorial guidelines is available on request. All correspondence concerning editorial matters should be addressed to:
