EMIGRATION

Emigrants are flocking to the West by scores, by hundreds and by thousands. We understand that boats from the Ohio River come into Saint Louis literally crowded with families seeking new homes on the western prairies. From Saint Louis many go up the Missouri River to settle in the Platte country, a few up the Illinois, and after dropping off at the various inviting places on the upper Mississippi, many reach our place and locate in town, or go back into the country. We are glad to see them coming. An industrious population is all that is required to make Iowa one of the richest countries in the world.—Bloomington (Muscatine) Herald, April 28, 1843.
