IOWA SALT

It is not perhaps generally known that there are numerous indications of the existence of salt in this territory, and particularly in the region of country bordering on the Des Moines River, yet such is the fact. We are glad to learn that these indications are about being tested. A friend has just informed us that a company of gentlemen acquainted with the manufacture of salt have commenced boring at the flourishing town of Bonaparte, Van Buren County, and that they are confident of succeeding in their enterprise. We hope they may.—Territorial Gazette (Burlington), quoted in the Bloomington (Muscatine) Herald, May 10, 1844, p. 2, c. 6.
