

Iowa, soon thereafter to St. Louis, Missouri, and in 1861 to McGregor, Iowa. The boy had helped support the family by selling newspapers on the streets when only ten years old. In McGregor he soon began clerking in dry goods stores, and in early manhood became a dry goods merchant on his own account, and was successful. He retired from business in 1895. That fall he was elected representative from Clayton County and served in the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-sixth Extra general assemblies. He served McGregor as member of the Board of Education, as town councilman, as mayor, and for years as justice of the peace.

ROBERT MELVIN PEET was born on a farm in Fairview Township, Jones County, Iowa, and died at his home on the same farm October 26, 1936, at the age of eighty years. Burial was in the Wilcox Cemetery near his home. His parents were James M. and Ann Dallas Peet. J. M. Peet's father, Gideon Peet, purchased from the government 560 acres in Fairview Township. After Gideon Peet's death J. M. Peet purchased the interests of the other heirs, and on his retiring in 1877, Robert Melvin Peet assumed control of the land. By industry and good management, he enlarged the acreage until he owned 1,200 acres in one body besides other nearby tracts. A successful farmer and stockman he was also a public-spirited citizen. He was an active member of the Democratic party in his county, served as a member of the Board of Supervisors of his county in 1902 and 1903, and in 1903 was elected representative and served in the Thirtieth and Thirty-first general assemblies.
