RAILROAD PASSES

THANKS. We are under renewed obligations to our railroads, the B. & M., and the K., Ft. D. M. & M., for the customary passes to the press, those bits of pasteboard which are at all times so ornamental and on special occasions so useful. We avail ourselves of the opportunity to say that the presentable management of these roads, the former by H. Thielson, Esq., superintendent, William H. Northup, general agent at this end, and the latter by George Williams, Esq., superintendent, William B. Armstrong, agent here, has been noted by us with much pleasure, and it will be our study, so far as we can, to cooperate with them in advancing the future prosperity of the same and their usefulness both to stockholders and the public.—The Ottumwa Courier, Ottumwa, Iowa, January 8, 1862.
