

EACH ISSUE of The Annals of Iowa brings to light the deeds, misdeeds, and accomplishments of our predecessors and shows how they fit into the intricate mosaic of Iowa's past. Its in-depth articles will satisfy even the most serious explorer of Iowa's past.

Anyone with a serious interest in Iowa history will gain valuable perspective from the pages of the Annals. Give it as a gift to a friend or relative. Check to see if your public, school, or academic library subscribes; if they don't, encourage them to do so or, better yet, donate a subscription.

Contributors

MATTHEW LINDAMAN is professor of history and chair of the Department of History and Legal Studies at Winona State University, where he regularly teaches courses on World Wars I and II. He earned his M.A. in history from the University of Northern Iowa and Ph.D. in history from the University of Kansas. He is working on a book analyzing John L. Griffith's role in intercollegiate athletics between the wars, including serving as the first commissioner of the Big Ten Conference.

NATHANIEL OTJEN is a doctoral student in Environmental Sciences, Studies, and Policy (focal department: English) at the University of Oregon. He holds a B.A. in English and Anthropology from the University of Iowa. He studies contemporary environmental literature, and his research aims to incorporate literary criticism into multispecies studies.

The State Historical Society of Iowa

The Annals of Iowa is published quarterly by the State Historical Society of Iowa, the Historical Division of the Department of Cultural Affairs of the State of Iowa. The society operates from two centers, Des Moines and Iowa City. A museum, research library, state archives, special collections, community programming, historic preservation, and membership programs are located at 600 East Locust Street, Des Moines, IA 50319, phone 515-281-5111. Publications, a research library, and special collections are located at 402 Iowa Avenue, Iowa City, IA 52240, phone 319-335-3916. The society also operates several historic sites across the state.

Subscriptions

Subscriptions to The Annals of Iowa are $24.95 per year; single copies are $7. Contact Publications, State Historical Society of Iowa, 402 Iowa Avenue, Iowa City, Iowa 52240.

The Annals is available on microfilm from Xerox University Microfilms, 300 N. Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48106.

Submissions

The Annals of Iowa invites the submission of articles on Iowa history and on subjects concerning the nation and the Midwest with an Iowa focus. State, local, and regional studies of political, economic, social, cultural, intellectual, institutional, ethnic, religious, material culture, archeological, and architectural history are welcome. The Annals also reviews significant books on related topics. A detailed set of editorial guidelines is available on request. All correspondence concerning editorial matters should be addressed to:
