

W. B. SOUTHWELL was born at Sterling, Illinois, November 16, 1862, and died at a hospital in Chicago, February 16, 1920. Interment was at Burlington, Iowa. When a small boy he removed with his parents to Burlington. He became a carrier boy for The Burlington Hawkeye. Later he ran the news stand at the Union Hotel, and at the Union Station. In 1885 he entered the business office of The Burlington Hawkeye and soon became that paper's business manager. He achieved real success in that work and in 1904 he went to the Register and Leader of Des Moines as its business manager, remaining there thirteen years. There he was also eminently successful. In 1917 he returned to Burlington as principal owner and publisher of The Hawkeye. In Des Moines he was a director and finally first vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce. In Burlington he was a member of the school board, a director in the Rotary Club, and was very active in Red Cross, Belgian Relief, Liberty Bond sales and all war activities.
