

Announcement

THE 20TH ANNUAL Iowa Country School Conference will be held in Story City, October 11-12. The meeting theme is: "Recycling Memories While Building for the Future." Several speakers will discuss how preservation can be used to promote rural tourism. Friday evening three new documentaries will be shown at a historic movie theater. Saturday morning participants will be able to tour historic structures such as schools, barns, and churches.

To obtain a copy of the program brochure, contact Kate Feil at storycityhistory@gmail.com or 515-460-1749 or Bill Sherman at wsherman41@gmail.com or 515-278-2242.

Contributors

MARIAN WILSON KIMBER is professor of musicology at the University of Iowa. Her book, The Elocutionists: Women, Music, and the Spoken Word (2017), received the Society for American Music's H. Earle Johnson Publication Subvention. It explores women's roles in the performance and composition of poetic recitation with music. Wilson Kimber's research about the composers Felix Mendelssohn and Fanny Hensel and women in American music has appeared in numerous books and journals.

PAMELA RINEY-KEHRBERG is professor of history at Iowa State University.
