THE IOWA OBSERVER.

This is the title of the new paper in Mount Pleasant, G. G. Galloway is the publisher and proprietor, and A. McKinney and John T. Morton editors. We have received the first and second numbers, and our absence must be our excuse for not giving it earlier notice. This makes 26 weeklies and one tri-weekly in Iowa, and we understand that another new Whig paper is to be started in Fairfield, Jefferson county. Success to them all we say, so far as they advocate the principles of truth and justice and no farther.—The Iowa True Democrat, (Samuel L. Howe, Editor), Mount Pleasant, November 14, 1850.

The Burlington Telegraph brings the sad intelligence of ex-Governor Clark's death, who fell an additional victim to the cholera on Saturday evening last, at the residence of Judge Mason, two miles from the city, whither he had retired after the death of his wife and child. He was attacked six or eight days previous to his death, but all medical assistance failed. He was appointed governor of the Territory by President Polk in 1845, and has been editor of the Gazette, published in Burlington, for a number of years.—The Iowa True Democrat, Mount Pleasant, July 30, 1850.
