

on the staffs of three Burlington hospitals; a charter member and past president of the Iowa State Surgical society; a member of the Mississippi Valley, Iowa State and American Medical groups, and of the American Medical College of Surgeons; a trustee of Iowa Wesleyan college, a Methodist and a Mason; survived by two daughters, Mrs. Carl Lohmann and Mrs. Thomas Lewis of Burlington, and a sister, Mrs. Wallace Worthley of Wenatchee, Washington.

---

WARREN C. EASTLAND, editor and civic leader, died at Clinton, Iowa, November 16, 1948; born in Erie, Illinois, September 7, 1884, the son of Amil and Maud Fredona Barker Eastland; secured a high school education and read law for two years and eight months in the office of Isaac Petersberger, in Davenport; married Marie Adaline Wilcox in 1910, who died May 1, 1930; married again in 1936 to Ruth A. Angell, who died April 21, 1948; joined the repertorial staff of the Clinton Herald September 1, 1905, his rapid advancement in the organization culminating in his elevation to editor, previously being employed upon the staffs of the Davenport Republican and Davenport Leader, the Journal-Gazette, at Fort Wayne, Indiana, the Herald at Denison, Texas, and the Sioux City Journal; served as vice president of the Iowa Associated Press association, and active in the Iowa Daily Press association; aggressive in club and civic work, a leader in the good road movement, and promoting paved highway construction in Iowa; interested in local and state tax problems, and served upon numerous local and state committees; carried responsibility in the boy scouts organization, and a member of the Masonic and Elks lodges and the Presbyterian church; survived by three sons, George, Des Plaines, Illinois; Paul T., Clinton, present county treasurer, and William Charles, at home.

---

RHEINHART PARKER COWLES, zoologist, educator and author, died on November 16, 1948, at Baltimore, Maryland; born at Washington, Iowa, April 8, 1872, son of Oscar P. and Ola E. (Rood) Cowles; removed about 1879 to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where he received grammar and high school education; removed in 1890 to Los Angeles, and attended Stanford university one year; returned to Milwaukee and employed by the Milwaukee Gas company and the Remington Typewriter company for four years; re-entered Stanford university in 1896, obtaining a B.A. in chemistry in 1899; later entered Johns Hopkins university and received degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Zoology in 1904; installed in 1912 as associate professor and later placed in charge of the department of zoology at the University of the Philippines at Manila; in 1919

Copyright of Annals of Iowa is the property of State of Iowa, by & through the State Historical Society of Iowa and its content may not be copied or emailed to multiple sites or posted to a listserv without the copyright holder's express written permission. However, users may print, download, or email articles for individual use.