

EDITORIAL NOTES.

MISS JENNIE McCOWEN's article is rich and replete with statistics of woman's work in Iowa.

THE Minnesota State National Society has made preparations for a fine exhibit of its curiosities and relics at the World's Exposition.

THE advertisement of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern Railroad is inserted this quarter. Their new road to Clinton via Tipton adds to their accommodation of travelers.

THE last number of the magazine containing Gov. Gue's article on Andersonville, was in great demand and the edition was soon nearly exhausted. The article is one of the most valuable, historically, that has ever appeared in Iowa print.

THE Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific R'y, "A Man," is also inserted. It has more rails in Iowa than any other road. It is rich and can stand the brunt of these hard times. Colfax Hotel is a success on this route. It is leased to Mr. Christian, of Grinnell, for five years, and will be a great place of resort.
