“I will dictate peace in the city of Mexico on the first of September,” said Gen. Scott as he left New Orleans for Vera Cruz. And on the 24th day of August the city of Mexico was at his mercy, and the negotiations for peace were in progress at his bidding! The whole programme of his prediction has been turned to history.—Weekly Miner's Express, Dubuque, Iowa, October 27, 1847. (In the newspaper collection of the Historical Department of Iowa.)
