

THE ANNALS OF IOWA

Wisconsin. Compiled and edited by Jill W. Dean with introduction by Clay Schoenfeld. (Madison, Wisconsin: Wisconsin Trails/Tamarack Press, 1978. 159 pp., illus., photo credits, $24.50.)

Over 100 color photographs portray the essence of the Badger state. Thirty-two contemporary writers and acute observers offer essays on topics of concern to every citizen of Wisconsin—past and present. The photographs alone make this book well worth the price. The publishers are to be commended for this gorgeous tapestry of pictures and words.
