

November 15, 1928; legal adviser to governor general of the Philippine Islands 1930-1932; associate justice supreme court of Philippine Islands after June 1, 1932; afterwards had further service there in relation to the insular possessions of the United States; during World War I was judge advocate of the service of supply, also as director of renting, requisition, claims service and finance officer of the America Expeditionary forces in France; received the distinguished service medal, the British orders of St. Michael and St. George, the French Legion of Honor, Serbia's order of St. Peter and other awards; retired in 1928 from active service in the army, having retained his voting residence at Des Moines all the years of his army life, but in recent years resided in Washington, D. C.

---

OLAF MARTIN OLSON, pharmacist and civic leader, died at his home in Fort Dodge, Iowa, February 8, 1944, where he had resided more than 70 years; born on the family estate, Five, located near Stenkjer, Norway, on June 29, 1849; attended schools of that community, and at the age of 20 came to America and directly to Fort Dodge; attended the Philadelphia School of Pharmacy, graduating in 1876 winning a special medal for scholarship; a successful business man in Fort Dodge for more than a half century as a druggist, one of the founders of the Fort Dodge Light & Power Company and the Fort Dodge Telephone Company, the Fort Dodge Hotel Company, the Olson Land Company and banking enterprises; active in civic affairs he became a philanthropist, the Lutheran hospital and the First Congregational church being principal among the many beneficiaries of his far reaching generosity; he was instrumental in the building of a nurses home and each year has made the hospital large gifts of equipment; he was a musician and his hobby was botany, a beautiful park set with rare trees and shrubbery being a gift to the city; founded the Grieg Mandskor at Fort Dodge more than a half century ago, and for years honorary president of the Norwegian Singers Association of America, the King of Norway recognizing his services in the field of music with a knighthood, visiting Norway to receive the honor, one of four trips to the mother country; in 1895 married to Luch Demming Merrill, who died in 1904; 37 years ago married Julie Haskell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Haskell, pioneer citizens.

---

JOSEPH S. MORGAN, publisher and public official, died at his home in Dubuque, Iowa, February 21, 1944; born at Dubuque, January 23, 1854, the son of Stephen and Catherine Morgan, who came to Dubuque from Ireland in 1846; attended the public schools and graduated from Bayless Business college; made the acquaintance of Congressman William B. Allison, who obtained for him appointment as a page in the United States senate, and two years later

Copyright of Annals of Iowa is the property of State of Iowa, by & through the State Historical Society of Iowa and its content may not be copied or emailed to multiple sites or posted to a listserv without the copyright holder's express written permission. However, users may print, download, or email articles for individual use.