He had a large acquaintance among the early settlers of Jefferson county by whom he was highly esteemed.

AN IOWA ARMY NURSE.

Soon after the lamented death of Mrs. Annie Wittenmyer, Hon. George D. Perkins, of The Sioux City Journal, made the following mention of that illustrious woman:

"She belonged to Iowa during the civil war. She was a leader among Iowa women in the collection and distribution of sanitary supplies for soldiers in the field. I was a member of Co. B, Thirty-first Iowa, and soon after our regiment reached Helena, Arkansas, I was taken violently ill. Our camp was utterly destitute of hospital supplies. The boys had fixed me up as well as they could. It was in the winter season and the rain fell almost incessantly. The boys gathered leaves and dried them and made a bed for me. My soldier overcoat was my pillow: In this situation, too weak to move more than my eyes and fingers. Mrs. Wittenmyer found me. She was just spying out the ground. She talked with me in such a cheery way, and when she left she said that in a few days they would have me in better shape. I do not remember all that followed, but I do remember that one day soon after her visit a real pillow took the place of my overcoat under my head. I was weak at the time, and I may as well confess that I instantly began to moisten it with tears. Of course, this is only one small incident in the army work of Annie Wittenmyer; but it is enough to enshrine her in my sacred memory."

SIR: It is impossible to give satisfactory replies to the questions propounded in yours of the 6th ultimo.

The railroad companies are not required by the laws of the State to make returns to any department of the State government, hence I have no means of making even an approximate estimate of the capital stock, debts, income, etc., of the several companies in this State.

Your obdt. servt.,

HON. HOWELL COBB,
Washington, D. C.

JAMES W. GRIMES.
