REV. (CAPT.) JAMES W. McKEAN.

We extract from the Dubuque Times a brief obituary notice of President McKean, of the Synodical Academy at Hopkinton, Iowa. We met him at Synod in this city a year ago, and were pleased with his agreeable manner, and can well account for his great popularity, socially and ministerially. His loss is a severe blow to the interests of the Church in which he was an able minister; the cause of christian education in which he was a successful and devoted preacher; and the country, for his patriotism led him to devote his life to the defense of her institutions. May the Lord raise up others like him.—
[ED.]

Rev. James W. McKean, Captain Co. C, 44th Iowa regiment, 100 days' men, died at Memphis, Tenn., July 9th, of bilious diarrhea. The deceased was born in Lawrence county, Pa. When yet a child his parents removed to Carroll county, Ohio, where for twenty years his father was pastor of
