JAMES ARTHUR DEVITT, born June 1, 1872, at DeWitt, Clinton County, Iowa, died at Oskaloosa, Iowa, June 30, 1939, aged 67 years. Mr. Devitt was active in the practice of law, took a large part in political and civic affairs and held several offices acceptably. He entered upon the practice of his profession in Oskaloosa immediately after his graduation from the law department of the State University in 1897. He had as a partner at first, W. C. Burrell, a fellow graduate, later was associated with J. C. Eichorn, and more recently had his son, James Lewelling Devitt, as an associate. He maintained for 42 years continually a law office in one place. His law practice covered a wide range and included an extensive corporation practice for railroad and utility companies. During all his life he had an active and influential part in political affairs. He was a member of the Republican state committee, and always interested himself in state and local affairs. He was appointed in 1913 to the committee of examiners for admission to the bar and had only a short time ago been reappointed to continue in that work. He was a member of the American Bar association, and represented Iowa on its general council, and was at one time president of the Iowa Bar association. He was county attorney of Mahaska county, 1922-23. He took a large part in church and lodge work. He interested himself in all civic activities and was especially effective in development of the highways radiating from his home city.

Mr. Devitt was son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Devitt of Clinton county, and he was married Aug. 20, 1902, at Eldora to Pauline Lewelling, daughter of Governor L. D. Lewelling of Kansas, then a resident of Iowa. Three children survive—James L., Tiah (Mrs. Johansen) and John B., and two grandchildren.

MARY CARPENTER CRAIG SHRECK passed away at her home in Redlands, California, March 27, 1939, at the age of 70 years. She was the daughter of George J. Carpenter, one of the founders of Drake University, and its first chancellor, and a niece of General Francis M. Drake, also one of the founders of the university to which his name was given.

Mrs. Shreck was a student at the university when it first opened, and received a Bachelor of Philosophy degree from Drake. After graduation from Drake she joined the staff of a Chicago religious paper. In 1897 she succeeded her mother, Henrietta Drake Carpenter, as University Librarian. Later she became girls' advisor, and in 1901, Dean of Women, retaining for a short time general supervision of the library.

In 1908 she resigned as Dean of Women, and on September 10 of that year married Chancellor Craig, the second chancellor of the university.
