

Announcement

THE IOWA HISTORY CENTER at Simpson College seeks nominations for the outstanding master's thesis in Iowa history for 2018. Selection will be based on contribution to the knowledge of Iowa history; originality of the subject matter or methodology; use of sources; and written expression. Nominees must have completed their master's degree between July 1, 2017, and June 30, 2018.

The winner will be announced in the fall of 2018 and will receive a $1,000 cash prize and an award plaque. Three copies of the thesis and a brief letter of nomination from the thesis advisor, which must include contact information for the nominee, should be submitted to Bill Friedrichs, Director, Iowa History Center, Simpson College, 701 North C Street, Indianola, IA 50125. Application deadline is June 30, 2018.

For further information, contact Linda Sinclair, (515) 961-1528 or linda.sinclair@simpson.edu.

EACH ISSUE of The Annals of Iowa brings to light the deeds, misdeeds, and accomplishments of our predecessors and shows how they fit into the intricate mosaic of Iowa's past. Its in-depth articles will satisfy even the most serious explorer of Iowa's past.

Anyone with a serious interest in Iowa history will gain valuable perspective from the pages of the Annals. Give it as a gift to a friend or relative. Contributors

LINDA CLEMMONS is professor of nineteenth-century American and Native American history at Illinois State University. She is working on a book about the years following the U.S.-Dakota War of 1862, tentatively titled After 1862: Exile, Trauma, and Survival among the Dakota, 1863–1866.

EMILY KATHRYN MORGAN is assistant professor of art history at Iowa State University. She received her M.A. and Ph.D. in art history from the University of Arizona. Her research focuses on the circulation and distribution of photographic imagery, with attention to how photographic meaning shifts and accrues as images circulate in publications, change hands among users, or are appropriated to new ends. She is the author of Street Life in London: Context and Commentary, published by MuseumsEtc. in 2014.
