

THE ADJUTANT-GENERAL TO GENERAL SULLY.

STATE OF IOWA, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
DAVENPORT, December 3d, 1863. }

General Alf. Sully, Sioux City, Iowa:

SIR:—Yours of the 26th ult. has been received, notifying me that you will immediately relieve our State troops. Orders were issued to State troops some days since to hold themselves in readiness to be mustered out as soon as relieved, and I shall write them that you will immediately do so with U. S. troops. I respectfully urge and shall confidently rely upon the immediate relief.

Your obedient servant,

N. B. BAKER, Adjutant-General of Iowa.

GENERAL SULLY'S REPLY TO THE ADJUTANT-GENERAL.

HEADQUARTERS DISTRICT DAKOTA, }
SIOUX CITY, IOWA, Dec. 22, 1863. }

To Gen. N. B. Baker, Adjutant General of Iowa:

SIR:—I have this day started part of the command to relieve your State troops on the northwest frontier. To-morrow I start more, and the third day the remainder. So your State troops can be discharged when you are ready.

With much regard, your obedient servant,

ALF. SULLY,

Brigadier-General Commanding District.

While the order for disbanding the company had been issued on September 21, 1863, it appears from the correspondence heretofore given that Gen. Sully was unable to furnish the men needed to occupy the posts down the line until the latter part of December. After this had been done and the detachments had been mustered out and the posts receipted for to Lt. Lewis H. Smith, I received a letter from Gen. Sully at Sioux City, stating that a squad of cavalry from his command would report at Estherville on the morning of Dec. 30 to relieve the state troops and take possession of the post. The members of the company were soon called together and notified to be fully prepared for the coming event. At about ten o'clock the next morning the troops made their appearance and lined up outside of the gates. Quite soon after the state troops with all their effects passed out and left the works to be taken in charge by U. S. troops. And so ended the services of the last members of the Northern Border Brigade.

It may be well to recall here the service rendered at an important time, by the company enlisted at Algona on August 27, 1862, and also by the one organized at Estherville at about the same time by Howard Graves. These two companies, without ever an alignment or roll call during their brief paper existence of only a few days, did much to quiet the excitement over the massacre in Minnesota and in holding the settlements until the company enlisted by authority of Governor Kirkwood was fully organized and took the field.

As to the services of the Northern Border Brigade the results show that it served an excellent purpose in preserving the settlements of the northwestern border and thereby prevented much suffering and an immense loss of property to the citizens of the State. From the reports heretofore given, it will be seen that the brigade promptly met and carried out all of the objects set forth in Governor Kirkwood's General Orders No. 1. By a wise distribution of its forces at frequent stations on the frontier, and under the able management of Col. Sawyers, the brigade undoubtedly did much in preventing the Indians from invading the State. The companies comprising the brigade constructed works at the different posts well suited for the purposes for which they were made, as shown by Col. Sawyers' final reports. These works together with the presence of the troops gave a genuine feeling of security not only to the settlers nearby but to all others that were in any way concerned, so that many who had left their homes during the excitement soon afterward returned.

The brigade was made up of strong, earnest, loyal men, well fitted by pioneer experiences to meet any emergency that might occur, and its survivors may well take pride in having been members and of helping to render the last service ever required by the State for the protection of its northern border from Indian invasion. The frontier about which so much was said forty years ago has long since disappeared from the State, and the word, so often heard then, is rarely spoken now, and only those who have lived its life can ever know the full import of its meaning.

In the preparation of the foregoing sketch many pleasing memories of the brigade have been recalled, and especially of the members of Co. A, whom I hold in grateful remembrance for kindly assistance and faithful work, with the best wishes for each and all.

The rosters of the field and staff, and of the several companies, will be found in the following pages.
