

ter and Leader of December 14 and 21, 1902. It is an elaborate and sympathetic account of Williamson's career from his muster into the Fourth Iowa Infantry to the day of his death. This is also to be reproduced in a beautiful pamphlet, of which every member of the old command will receive a copy. Gen. Dodge has written many papers, addresses and reports, but we have never read anything better from his pen. He wrote from the fullest information and in deep sympathy with his old comrade-in-arms. We trust that by some means this concise record of the career of one of our bravest Iowa soldiers and noblest men may have a wide circulation in our State.

JUDGE DILLON'S LAW PUBLICATIONS.

The following is the authentic bibliography of the law writings of the Honorable John F. Dillon, who was elected Judge of the Supreme Court of this State in 1863, for the term of six years. He was re-elected, but before taking the oath of office, was appointed Judge of the U. S. Circuit Court, for the Eighth Judicial District, serving from 1869 until 1879, when he resigned. He was professor of real estate and equity jurisprudence in Columbia Law School from 1879 until 1882. Since the last date he has practiced law in New York City. Judge Dillon's works have met with a large sale in the city of London—where, in fact, some editions were published—and elsewhere throughout the United Kingdom. In this country they were recognized as standard legal authorities at once upon their publication, and repeated editions have been called for by the profession. Judge Dillon is also the author of many pamphlets on legal and historical topics, and of one of the most tasteful memorial volumes that has appeared in this country. This last was published in memory of his wife and daughter, who were lost at sea, July 4, 1898.

NEW YORK, October 24, 1900.
