The eleventh annual spring dinner of the Friends on Thursday evening, May 1, 1975, will be held at the Highlander Supper Club in conjunction with a dinner for participants who attend the conference, "The Publication of American Historical Manuscripts," co-sponsored on the University of Iowa campus by the National Historical Publications and Records Commission and The University of Iowa. The speaker will be Dr. E. Berkeley Tompkins, Executive Director of the NHPRC.

Life membership in the Friends is awarded to patrons whose gifts of rare books or financial contributions are at least $1,000, and to sustaining members whose annual contributions of $100 may become equivalent to this. Other annual memberships are solicited as follows: contributing memberships $25, regular memberships $10, student memberships $5. Institutions are accepted as regular members.
