NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

O. M. BRACK, JR., Assistant Professor of English, is an assistant editor of Books at Iowa, and Director of the Center for Textual Studies.

ARTHUR H. MINTERS is a bookseller in New York City specializing in books and periodicals on art and architecture. He has taken graduate study in art history at New York University's Institute of Fine Art and has done creative work in painting and sculpture.

PETER L. PETERSEN is an Assistant Professor of History at West Texas State University and a doctoral candidate in history at The University of Iowa. His dissertation, currently in progress, is a study of Edwin T. Meredith.

MARY L. RICHMOND, Custodian of the Chapin Library at Williams College from 1948 to 1955, is a collector of Cummington Press books. She was a member of the staff of the library set up for the Delegates to the United Nations Organization meeting in San Francisco when the Charter was written, and she has also served as administrative assistant to the Provost of the University of California at Berkeley. The third edition of her revision and enlargement of Peyton Hurt's Bibliography and Footnotes is scheduled for publication this fall.
