Preface

This index to issues number one through ten of BOOKS AT IOWA includes names of individuals and works which are topics of substantive discussion in articles. Entry is primarily by author, with some additional approach by title and subject. Material appearing in bibliographic footnotes, lists, indexes and bibliographies, as well as material mentioned only briefly or incidentally in articles, is not included in the index.

Whole articles, like other works, are entered under the names of their authors, and their titles appear entirely in capital letters. Abbreviations include "ed" for editor, "pr" for printer, and "illus" for material appearing in connection with an illustration. Inclusive paging has been cited wherever possible.

The index has been compiled under the direction of the editorial staff of BOOKS AT IOWA.
