

OCTOBER

Published quarterly by The MIT Press for the Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies, New York.

Rosalind Krauss
Annette Michelson
Editors

"OCTOBER is among the most advanced journals of the 1970s and 1980s in the fields of art theory, criticism, history, and practice. Its current editors . . . are intimately familiar with the cultural and political avant garde of Europe and the U.S. and are able to attract its best thinkers . . . Few, if any, journals could receive a higher recommendation."—

Choice

Recent authors include:

- Leo Bersani
- Benjamin H. D. Buchloh
- Jane Gallop
- Fredric Jameson
- Linda Nochlin
- Leo Steinberg

At the leading edge of arts criticism and theory today, OCTOBER focuses critical attention on the entire range of contemporary cultural practices. It considers the interrelationships among the arts—film, painting, photography, music, dance, performance, sculpture, literature—as well as their social and political contexts. Original, innovative, provocative, each issue of OCTOBER presents the most current and most significant texts by and about leading contemporary artists, scholars, and critics, both here and abroad.
