Dada Spectrum presents one of the most comprehensive inquiries into the nature and position of Dada within the avant garde movements of the twentieth century

This handsome volume contains important, previously unpublished scholarly essays on Dada, a comprehensive bibliography, and numerous reproductions of Dadaist artwork—many from private collections.

Interdisciplinary in nature, the essays analyse the revolution in film, typography, literature, and visual arts. The contributors, well-known in the field, present a unique diversity of perspectives and approaches to the Dada movement.

NOMMO AFRICAN FICTION IN FRENCH South of the Sahara

by
John Erickson

In the field of African prose fiction this book, by reason of its original and comprehensive treatment of individual works, represents a pioneering study in English. Its systematic and coherent approach makes it an effective entry for the general reader into the nature, scope and evolution of Francophone African fiction. Through its eclectic and rigorous analyses of two collections of tales and eight novels, it offers the specialist as well a rich and renewed understanding of individual works, some of which, like Hazoumé's Doguiçimi, have suffered undeserved neglect. $17.00
