

Dada Spectrum presents the most comprehensive inquiry into the nature and position of Dada within the avant garde movements of the twentieth century. Interdisciplinary in nature the essays analyze the revolution in film, typography, literature, and visual arts. The contributors, well-known in the field, present a unique diversity of perspectives and approaches to the Dada movement.

a review of contemporary criticism

Richard Klein, Editor

Diacritics is the preeminent forum for contemporary literary and critical theory. Fostering speculation and debate, each issue examines innovative and seminal modern criticism. Recent issues have focused on such noted practitioners as Jacques Derrida, Marc Eli Blanchard, and Irleamar Cortez.
