WESTERN AMERICANA

Fred L. Holmes is the author of a volume entitled Wisconsin's War Record which he says "is not Wisconsin's History in the Great War" but rather an attempt to furnish information as to Wisconsin's part in the war. In addition to the twenty-two chapters of subject matter, the volume contains a table of contents and a serviceable index which give a survey of the activities within the State.

The University of Michigan has recently published A Catalogue of The Dr. Samuel A. Jones Carlyle Collection, compiled by Mary Eunice Wead.

Minnesota's Proposed Road System is the title of a brief paper published in the August number of The Road-Maker.

An Archeological Survey of Adams County, Wisconsin, by H. E. Cole and H. A. Smythe, has been published in the April number of The Wisconsin Archeologist.

Municipal Bonds and Bond Issues, by W. P. Dumas; Effective Fire Department Organization, by E. L. Wells, Jr.; and Municipal Reference Library Service for Cities, by Elizabeth H. West, are three papers which appear in Texas Municipalities for May-July.

Whitman Once More, by Gottfried Emanuel Hult, Co-operative Educational Research in North Dakota, by John W. Todd, An Americanization Program for the Schools, by George R. Davies, and The University and National Progress, by John Bartholomew Spence, are four of the papers in The Quarterly Journal of the University of North Dakota for July.

A number of tributes to Benjamin Ide Wheeler, retiring president of the University of California, are to be found in The University of California Chronicle for July. Other papers are the following: Some Lessons of the War, by Charles Mills Gayley; An Invasion of Hun-Land with the Army of Occupation, by Lester C. Uren; and The French Mines and the War, by Frank H. Probert.

The Housing Problem In Portland, by Thomas Adams, and Financing State Enterprises, by A. L. Mills, are two articles found in the April number of The Commonwealth Review of the University of Oregon.

Wisconsin in the World War is the title of a volume by R. B. Pixley which was recently published by the Wisconsin War History Company of Milwaukee. As its name implies the book is devoted to the various war activities carried on in Wisconsin during the period of the war and among the subjects discussed in the twenty-two chapters are the following: the military mobilization, the State Council of National Defense, the food administration, the fuel administration, women in the war, financial drives, welfare work, the Red Cross, and publicity activities. A vast amount of State and local history has been collected in the volume but its usefulness is somewhat lessened by the lack of a table of contents and a satisfactory index.

IOWANA

A History of the War Activities of Scott County, Iowa, 1917-1918, edited by Ralph W. Cram, and published by the Scott County Council of National Defense, has recently appeared. It is dedicated "by the war workers of Scott County to those who bore arms in their stead, and to those who, in camp and cantonment, on the high seas and on the battle-fields of the Great War made the great sacrifice that the freedom of the world might be preserved." The volume contains one hundred and forty-five pages.

The Quarterly Bulletin of the Iowa Masonic Library for July contains the proceedings of the seventy-sixth annual convention of the Grand Lodge of Iowa, held at Cedar Rapids in June, 1919.

A Defense of "Y" Work, by John L. M'Leish, is one of the papers to be found in The American Freemason for July-August.

An Appreciation of Heman C. Smith, by Heman Hale Smith, continuations of Distinguished Women, by Heman C. Smith, and Early Days on Grand River, and the Mormon War, by Rollin J. Britton, are contributions to the Journal of History for July.

The Honor Roll of Worth County is the title of the county war history published by The Northwood Anchor.

The Thirtieth Anniversary of the Law Class of '89 and its Reunion at Iowa City, June 15 and 16, 1919, is the title of a pamphlet recently published by the class.

The first volume of Drake University Studies contains a monograph by Paul Walton Black on Some Sociological Aspects of Lynchings in Iowa.

Three articles which appear in the July number of The Iowa Alumnus are the following: A Notable Commencement, by Grace Partridge Smith; The Pitch Range Audiometer, by Mabel Clare Williams; and Eloquence — What Is It?, by George L. Glick.

The Iowa Magazine for July contains a number of papers, among which are the following: A Few of Iowa's Splendid Park Sites; Former Iowan Governor of Illinois; Can Rural Districts Afford Hard Roads?, by Joe Long; and Who Is Hawkeye Club of Chicago? In the August number, Sidney B. Vincent writes of Simon Benson, the Western Pioneer, and there are papers on A Crisis for Iowa Button Industry and the Des Moines County Proposed Memorial.

The August issue of American Municipalities contains a discussion of Municipal Tax Levies in Iowa and a paper on War Memorials, by Andrew Wright Crawford and J. Horace McFarland. In the September number is included a preliminary program for the meeting of the League of Iowa Municipalities at Muscatine, September 16-18. There is also a paper by J. B. Hill on Principles Determining Electric Rates.

Federal Farm Loan Law in Practice, by G. M. Titus, is one of the papers in the July number of The Northwestern Banker. In the August issue E. B. Wilson contributes a short paper on New Business for the Country Bank. Two papers in the September number are: Debts of U. S., Allies and Germany, by Harvey E. Fisk; and Farm Building and Farm Buildings, by W. A. Wilkinson.

The Journal of the Iowa State Medical Society for August contains a fourth installment of D. S. Fairchild's history of medicine in Iowa. This chapter deals with the Medical Department of Iowa State University at Iowa City. There is also a discussion of Illiteracy in the United States and an address by Martin J. Wade. The September issue contains an article on The Iowa Medical Profession in the Great War.

In the January-March number of Iowa Conservation there are papers on the following topics of general interest: Historical Sketch of the Park Region About McGregor, Iowa, and Prairie Du Chien, Wisconsin, by Althea R. Sherman; What the Legislature Did with Reference to State Parks in Iowa, by L. H. Pammel; Women's Clubs and Conservation, by Mrs. C. H. McNider; and A Method of Preserving Places of Historical and Natural Interest, by G. Perle Wilson Schmidt. In the following number B. J. Horchem writes of Parks and Country Life, and there is a continuation of Miss Sherman's article on the park region about McGregor.

Williams; Some Confusing Statements in Ramsey's "Annals" and Other Historians, by J. Tyree Fain; and A Tour in 1807 Down the Cumberland, Ohio and Mississippi Rivers, by J. R. Bedford.

The Missouri Historical Review for July contains the following articles and papers: an installment of Missouri and the War, by Floyd C. Shoemaker; The Missouri Intelligencer, by E. W. Stephens; Missourians Abroad—Robert E. Coontz, by Geo. A. Mahan; The Lawyer in Missouri One Hundred Years Ago, by John H. Philips; Missouri's Centennial, by Floyd C. Shoemaker; and a continuation of Early Days on Grand River and the Mormon War, by Rollin J. Britton.

An address delivered at the centennial celebration of the voyage of the steamship "Savannah", by Alexander R. Lawton, and an Account of the Loss of the Steamer "Pulaski", by Mrs. Hugh McLead, are two of the contributions in the June issue of The Georgia Historical Quarterly.

A monograph by Guy Stanton Ford on America's Fight for Public Opinion is printed in the Minnesota History Bulletin for February. The May number contains a biographical sketch of William Gates Le Duc, by Gideon S. Ives, and an article by Herbert C. Varney on The Birth Notices of a State.

The Western Pennsylvania Historical Magazine for July contains an account of the Celebration of the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the Incorporation of Pittsburgh as a Borough. Addresses were delivered by Charles W. Dahlinger, S. B. McCormick, Harold M. Irons, Thomas A. Dunn, and H. J.

Webster. Pittsburgh Authors, by Horace R. Thayer, and The Frontier Policy of Pennsylvania, by George Arthur Cribbs, are the articles published in this issue.

The Ursulines of Louisiana, by Heloise Hulse Cruzat, Fray Antonio de Sedella, by Clarence Wyatt Bishpam, Jackson Square, by Henry Renshaw, The Lost City of Lafayette, by James A. Renshaw, Highway Progress in Louisiana, by C. M. Kerr, and The Legal Institutions of Louisiana, by Henry Plauchè Dart, are papers and addresses printed in The Louisiana Historical Quarterly for January.

Texas Annexation Sentiment in Mississippi, 1835-1844, by James E. Winston, The Apache in the Southwest, 1846-1886, by Bertha Blount, John H. Fonda's Exploration in the Southwest, by Cardinal Goodwin, Texas in 1820, translated by Mattie Austin Hatcher, and the seventh installment of the Minutes of the Ayuntamiento of San Felipe de Austin, 1828-1832, edited by Eugene C. Barker, are the chief contributions included in the July issue of The Southwestern Historical Quarterly.

The American Historical Review for July contains three papers: The English Benedictines and their Bishops in the Thirteenth Century, by Alfred H. Sweet; The Origin of English Political Parties, by Wilbur C. Abbott; and The Coalition of Europe against Napoleon, by Edouard Driault. Three short papers are also included: one by W. A. Dunning on Disloyalty in Two Wars; one on the Historical Work by Army General Staffs, written by Ralph Van Deman Magoffin; and a third, by John R. M. Taylor, on The History of the War of 1917.

The Nebraska History and Record of Pioneer Days has become a quarterly publication instead of a monthly as formerly issued. The January-March number contains a list of the Nebraska men who lost their lives during war service. The issue for April-June presents a brief account of Base Hospital 49 — a Nebraska hospital unit — and a list of its personnel.

The Ashley River: Its Seats and Settlements, by Henry A. M. Smith, is one of the articles which appears in the January number of The South Carolina Historical and Genealogical Magazine. A continuation of this article is to be found in the April number, and a closely related account under the title The Upper Ashley; and the Mutations of Families, by the same author, appears in the July issue.

The Annual Report of the American Historical Association for the year 1916 has been published in two volumes. The usual reports of officers and commissions are included. The papers and articles found in these volumes are, for the most part, devoted to history other than American. Three which relate to the United States are the following: Historic Ideals in Recent Politics, by Joseph Schafer; American Historical Periodicals, by Augustus H. Shearer; and Correspondence of Robert M. T. Hunter, 1826-1876, edited by Charles Henry Ambler.

Among the papers and addresses printed in the Transactions of the Illinois State Historical Society for 1918 are the following: Illinois — The Land of Men, by Edgar A. Bancroft; Virginia in the Making of Illinois, by H. J. Eckenrode; Illinois in the Democratic Movement of the Century, by Allen Johnson; Establishing the American Colonial System in the Old Northwest, by Elbert Jay Benton; The Centennial History of Illinois, by Clarence W. Alvord; The Interest Indiana Holds in Historic Illinois, by Charles W. Moores; and A Hundred Years of Sunday School History in Illinois, 1818-1918.

The June number of The Mississippi Valley Historical Review contains the following contributions: The Annexation of Texas and the Bluffton Movement in South Carolina, by Chauncey S. Boucher; The South and the Arming of the Slaves, by Thomas Robson Hay; and Historical Activities in the Old Northwest, by Arthur C. Cole. The Proceedings of The Mississippi Valley Historical Association, for 1917-1918, are printed as an extra number of the Review for May. In addition to the various reports, a large number of papers are included, among which are the following: Six Constitutions of the Far Northwest, by John D. Hicks; Popular Sovereignty and the Colonization of Kansas from 1854 to 1860, by William O. Lynch; Missouri in the Kansas Struggle, by Mary J. Klem; Indiana State Aid for Negro Deportation, by Henry N. Sherwood; The Collapse of the Steamboat Traffic Upon the Mississippi: An Inquiry into Causes, by Paul W. Brown; The Relation of the County Farm Bureau and the County Agent to the Collection of Local Historical Data Relating to Agriculture, by W. A. Lloyd; Geographic Problems in American History, by H. A. Bone; The Fight for Public Opinion, by Thomas F. Moran; To What Extent Was George Rogers Clark in Possession of the Northwest at the Close of the Revolution?, by James A. James; The Spanish Conspiracy in Tennessee, by Archibald Henderson; Religious Forces in the United States, 1815-1830, by Martha L. Edwards; Andrew Johnson and the Homestead Bill, by St. George L. Sioussat; Commercial Intercourse with the Confederacy in the Mississippi Valley, 1861-1865, by E. Merton Coulter; Some Relations of the Upper Mississippi Valley with Lake Superior in the Civil War Period, by Lester Burrell Shippee; The United States Factory System for Trading with the Indians, by Royal B. Way; and Individual Instruction in History, by Bessie L. Pierce.

ACTIVITIES

The American Historical Association will hold its annual meeting at Cleveland, Ohio, December 29-31, 1919. There will be joint sessions with the Mississippi Valley Historical Association and with the Political Science Association, which will meet at Cleveland at the same time.

Superintendents of the State Historical Societies of the Upper Mississippi Valley met at Chicago, October 4, 1919. M. M. Quaife, of Wisconsin, was reëlected chairman and Solon J. Buck, of Minnesota, was again chosen to act as secretary. Benjamin F. Shambaugh represented The State Historical Society of Iowa. The work in the archives at Washington under the direction of N. D. THEODORE P. SHONTS

Theodore P. Shonts, formerly president of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, who died at New York, September 21, 1919, began his business career in Iowa. He was born in Crawford County, Pennsylvania, May 5, 1856, and came to Iowa when a boy. After completing his college course he became an accountant and was employed by the Iowa national banks to simplify and standardize their bookkeeping. Later he studied law and began the practice of that profession at Centerville, but soon became interested in railroad administration and railroad building. Under his management the Iowa Central Railroad and the Missouri, Iowa, and Nebraska Railroad were constructed. Mr. Shonts was also connected with many other transportation companies and in 1905 President Roosevelt appointed him chairman of the Isthmian Canal Commission. In 1882 Mr. Shonts married Harriet Amelia Drake, a daughter of John F. Drake, a former governor of Iowa.

TACITUS HUSSEY

Tacitus Hussey, Iowa pioneer, poet, and philosopher, died at Des Moines, August 9, 1919. Mr. Hussey was born in Terre Haute, Indiana, in 1832, and in 1855 came to Des Moines where he became a partner in a printing and book-binding firm. He is the author of The River Bend and Other Poems, History of Steamboating on the Des Moines River, and the History of the Central Presbyterian Church. Among his best known poems are The Old Flag; My Country, Oh, My Country; and Iowa, Beautiful Land. A book of reminiscences is now in press.

HEMAN C. SMITH

Heman C. Smith, general historian of the Lamoni branch of Latter Day Saints and editor of the Journal of History, died at Independence, Missouri, April 17, 1919. He was born in Gillespie County, Texas, on September 27, 1850, and came to Iowa in 1861. Mr. Smith was interested in history and was considered an authority on the factions in Mormonism and on the old Mormon trails. A Church History, in four volumes, The True Succession in Church Presidency, and Truth Defended are among his historical works. With J. M. Howell, he was joint author of a two volume History of Decatur County, Iowa. He was also a contributor to various historical publications and was a member of The State Historical Society of Iowa.
