

THE IOWA HISTORICAL REVIEW

THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA
UNDERGRADUATE HISTORY JOURNAL

VOLUME 1, ISSUE 2

FEBRUARY 2008

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Table of Contents

The Iowa Historical Review Editorial Board

3

Letter from the Editor

4

The Compatibility of Christianity and Socialism in the Context of the Kress Controversy of 1905 in Milwaukee

by Marissa Renee Floyd

5

“Truth, Justice and the American Way”: The Intersection of American Youth Culture and Superhero Narratives

Sebastian T. Mercier

21

The Historian Who Sold Out: James Bryce and the Bryce Report

Jameson Ryley

60

The Atlantic Crossing: Foundations of the Industrial Revolution

Jacob Becker

86

The Iowa Historical Review Editorial Board

Seo-Young Lee
Janelle Penny

Ashley Goulden
Shannon Wenck
Timothy Winger
Jessica Zuerner

The Iowa Historical Review is published once a semester and is available through the University of Iowa History Department website. A student-run publication, it accepts submissions from former and current undergraduate students in the Midwest.

For more information, please contact us at iowa-history@uiowa.edu.