Judgment Day's a noble
Explanation for dark thought.
So believers live inconstant.
Judgment's a satisfactory
Where they work.

God was cruel to his creations.
My creations disappoint
Me too. I made them to.
Their hearts are like my heart
In form, not content.

I'd like to make a judgment.
My life flickers. Is this day?
I've fallen in the chair
Where I've been.
Someone who trusts me

Calls me worthy.
