

JIM DANIELS

We played in The Field and in The Woods and bought candy at The Store.

In our houses, we went to The Bathroom
and danced to The Radio.

We rode our bikes in The Street to The School. We raced to The Fire Hydrant and The Streetlight.

We threw crabapples at The Crazy Guy and confessed at The Church. The Doctor looked down our throats with his flashlight.

One day we rode our bikes across The Busy Road and into more than one of everything.
