

Outer wear

The only time we wore raincoats at boot camp was the night Recruit Smith ate bleach. When the corpsmen came to get her the duty chief called out Man onboard! which reduced us to sniggering into our sleeves like creepy Tyrone F. Horneigh; they carried her out on a stretcher, her dagger eyes killing us all.