

the only jewelry i wear small shard of metal brazed on a stainless steel chain, 122mm rocket shrapnel, not quite a trapezoid, dug out of a post where it lodged one night, 10" from my head while i slept, more a trapezium, same shrapnel that killed michael, other side of our hooch, quadrilateral with no parallel sides, size of a c-ration lima bean maybe
