

G.C. WALDREP

SIEGE

if not a white horse:
if not: chime

of porcelain: long
light, midsummer

glow: to ascribe,

i.e. falcon: barrier:

extraction, as
by gold or forceps:

scaled alluvion:

such minuscule
quantities of water

rest in glass: as
oxygen, hydrogen:

illness is a city,
we live there & it
has shape, specie,
almost a public

transportation:

as garment: sleep
pares: apologist for

luster, this bridge,

see how bright the
enemy's porches

pitch then shine: