

AS LONG AS RELIEF

a hallway of others walked into my sleeping life the causes were many many were secret

we fought with our desolate formulas smothered our mirrors and that was progress indoors day came out utterly white we kicked our shadows off the edge time was nice even then we heard before we could see disaster a plane passing over