

POEM

I know Shelley killed himself or allowed himself to die in that boat and every woman I see this August is beautiful with her friends under the sidewalk umbrellas the noise of the cicadas breaks across the bay Edward Williams and Charles Vivian were also drowned

137

Matthew Rohrer