Our front cover reproduces "Proposal for a cityscape and land reclamation," by Luther Utterback, watercolor and ink, 1975. Utterback's work is usually on a very large scale. Midwestern readers will be most familiar with it from limestone and landscaped constructions in front of the Hoover Building at the Capitol Complex in Des Moines and between Hancher Auditorium and the Iowa River in Iowa City. Utterback sees both of these as plans for further constructions.

The Iowa Review is indexed in Abstracts of English Studies, American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies, American Humanities Index, Annual Index to Poetry in Periodicals, Bibliography of English Language and Literature, Index of American Periodical Verse, Index to Book Reviews in the Humanities, and Modern Language Association Bibliography.
