

ON GIVING UP ADVICE

Sometimes I forget what you're supposed to do after you
Pack up the troubles in an old kit bag;
Or is it your old kit bag?

And sometimes I forget where to brighten the corner,
Or why button up the overcoat or count the blessings;
Or is it your corner, overcoat, blessings?

Advisors never listen to themselves.
I suppose it is always your;
And anyhow the advice is dated now.
