ON OUR COVER: In celebration of the Year of the Cock, we show "Cock Crowing" (2002) by Alexander S. Gourlay of Providence, Rhode Island (3" x 3", woodcut). We last featured Mr. Gourlay's work on our covers in 1982.

The Iowa Review is a literary magazine published three times annually by the Department of English and the Graduate College of The University of Iowa.

The Iowa Review is indexed in Abstracts of English Studies, American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies, American Humanities Index, Bibliography of English Language and Literature, Index of American Periodical Verse, Index to Book Reviews in the Humanities, Modern Language Association Bibliography, and Poem Finder (www.poemfinder.com).

Send subscriptions, submissions, and inquiries to 308 EPB, The University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa 52242-1408. Please see our ad on page VI for subscription information. We read manuscripts from September through March, or until we fill issues for a year ahead, then we return all work until the following September. We do not read work without a SASE, nor do we accept e-mail submissions.

Visit our Web site for full guidelines, samplings, and more, and to access our electronic literature companion, The Iowa Review Web: www.uiowa.edu/~iareview

The Iowa Review is set in Iowan Old Style, a typeface designed by John Downer and published by Bitstream Inc. Downer generously donated his time in resetting our logo. The magazine design is adapted from a style established by Kay Amert in 1978 and has been updated with guidance from Shari DeGraw at the University of Iowa Center for the Book.
