Celebrating 25 Years of the Pitt Poetry Series!

The Pittsburgh Book of Contemporary American Poetry

Ed Ochester and Peter Oresick, Editors

This anthology commemorates the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Pitt Poetry Series (1968–1993), providing generous selections—about three hundred lines of verse—of the forty-five poets currently in print in the series, as well as a full-page photograph of each.

The Pittsburgh Book of Contemporary American Poetry is an ideal and inexpensive anthology for classroom use in literature and creative writing courses, and the best available general introduction to contemporary American poetry for the general reader.
