George William McDaniel holds a B. A. from St. Ambrose College and M. A.'s from the Aquinas Institute of Theology and the University of Iowa. Currently on leave from his faculty position at St. Ambrose, Father McDaniel is a doctoral candidate at the University of Iowa. A recent publication by McDaniel, "Prohibition Debated in Washington County, 1890-1894: Smith Wildman Brookhart's Introduction to Politics," appeared in the Winter 1981 issue of the Annals of Iowa.

Bradley B. Williams received an A. B. in English from the University of Southern California and a M. A. in American Studies from San Diego State University. He is now completing work on a doctorate in American Studies at the University of Iowa. In 1979-80 he was consultant to the Iowa State Preserves Advisory Board on the Ft. Atkinson State Preserve.

Loren N. Horton was born near Hopeville, Iowa and received his B. A. and M. A. degrees from the University of Northern Iowa, and his Ph. D. from the University of Iowa. He was a teacher in Iowa schools for 18 years, and has served on the faculty of Palmer Junior College, Shimer College, the University of Iowa, George Washington University, and Brown University. Articles and book reviews by Horton have appeared in Community College Social Science Quarterly, Annals of Iowa, The Public Historian, Journal of the West, Nebraska History, Journal of the Iowa Archaeological Society, The Iowa Churchman, and The Keystone, as well as earlier issues of The Palimpsest. He has been the author or editor of chapters and monographs published by the State Historical Society of Iowa, the Oklahoma Historical Society, and the Iowa Natural Heritage Foundation. At the present time Horton serves as the Field Services Representative for the Iowa State Historical Department.

THE PALIMPSEST is published bimonthly by the State Historical Society in Iowa City. Second class postage paid at Iowa City, Iowa. Postmaster: send address changes to State Historical Society of Iowa, 402 Iowa Avenue, Iowa City, Iowa 52240.
