

ANNOUNCEMENT

WHITMAN ENCYCLOPEDIA

Donald D. Kummings (University of Wisconsin-Parkside) and J. R. LeMaster (Baylor University) are under contract with Garland Publishing in New York to co-edit the Walt Whitman Encyclopedia, a single-volume reference work of some 900 pages containing approximately 800 entries covering virtually every aspect of the poet's life, work, and milieu. Entries, all of which will be signed, will more resemble scholarly essays than standard encyclopedia items. Anyone interested in contributing to the volume should write immediately to Professor Kummings, Department of English, University of Wisconsin-Parkside, Box 2000, Kenosha, Wisconsin 53141.
