THE ANNUAL FEINBERG AWARD

The Walt Whitman Quarterly Review announces the establishment of the FEINBERG AWARD, to be given annually to the author of the best essay published in WWQR during the year. The award honors Mr. Charles E. Feinberg, the distinguished bibliophile and friend of Whitman scholars, whose work has initiated and energized much of the Whitman scholarship of this century.

Special Offer to Subscribers of the WWQR

Through a special arrangement with the publishers, the subscribers to the WWQR can purchase the Library of America Walt Whitman volume at the discounted price of $16.50, a 40% savings off the retail price of $27.50.

The Library of America is the award-winning series that presents the collected works of America's foremost authors in uniform, authoritative editions.

Edited by Justin Kaplan, the Whitman volume includes Leaves of Grass 1855, Leaves of Grass 1891-92, and the complete prose works. The New York Times Book Review called this compact 1392-page book "the best one-volume Whitman anywhere available." Like all volumes in the series, it is beautifully printed in legible type on acid-free paper, with sewn imported cloth bindings and a ribbon marker.

To take advantage of this special offer, complete the coupon and mail it with your check to the address provided.
